Basic Obstetrics & Gynaecology Ultrasound Course

10th of March 2015
Auditorium Gemilang
Hospital Tuanku Ja'afar

Basic knowledge & proper ultrasound techniques is essential for antenatal care in terms of dating the pregnancy as well as identifying high risk cases. Hence, it is important for all doctors especially those in charge of district hospitals and health clinics to govern the knowledge and skills in order to improve the antenatal care towards achieving the MDG 4/5 goal!
