THE INS AND OUTS OF VAGINAL INFECTIONS – STRATEGIES TO OPTIMISE TREATMENT OUTCOME

08 June 2022 (Wed) | 7:00–8:00pm (SGT)

WHAT TO EXPECT

Vaginal discharge is a very common problem which brings the patient to see the gynaecologist or family physician. Recurrence of this problem is common and frustrating for both patient and doctor. In this lecture, Dr Christopher Chong covers the differential diagnosis and management of vaginal discharge / lower genital tract infection. In addition, he shares useful clinical management practice tips for gynaecologists and family physicians to better manage this common condition. Bring your 'burning' questions on this topic to this "live" webinar for Dr Chong to address.
